Argonaut

Published by the Student Body of Garden Grove Union High School

A Loyal Pirate

With pride and admiration this Argonaut is dedicated to a man who for twenty-four years has embarked upon the seas of teaching . . . has realized that teaching is much more than just the knowledge of one's subject . . . is easy to talk to . . . always a sympathetic listener . . . has a knack of reducing students' problems by understanding them.

Thus, affectionately and proudly we of the class of '51 dedicate the 1951 Argonaut to Abraham "Pop" Eidelson.

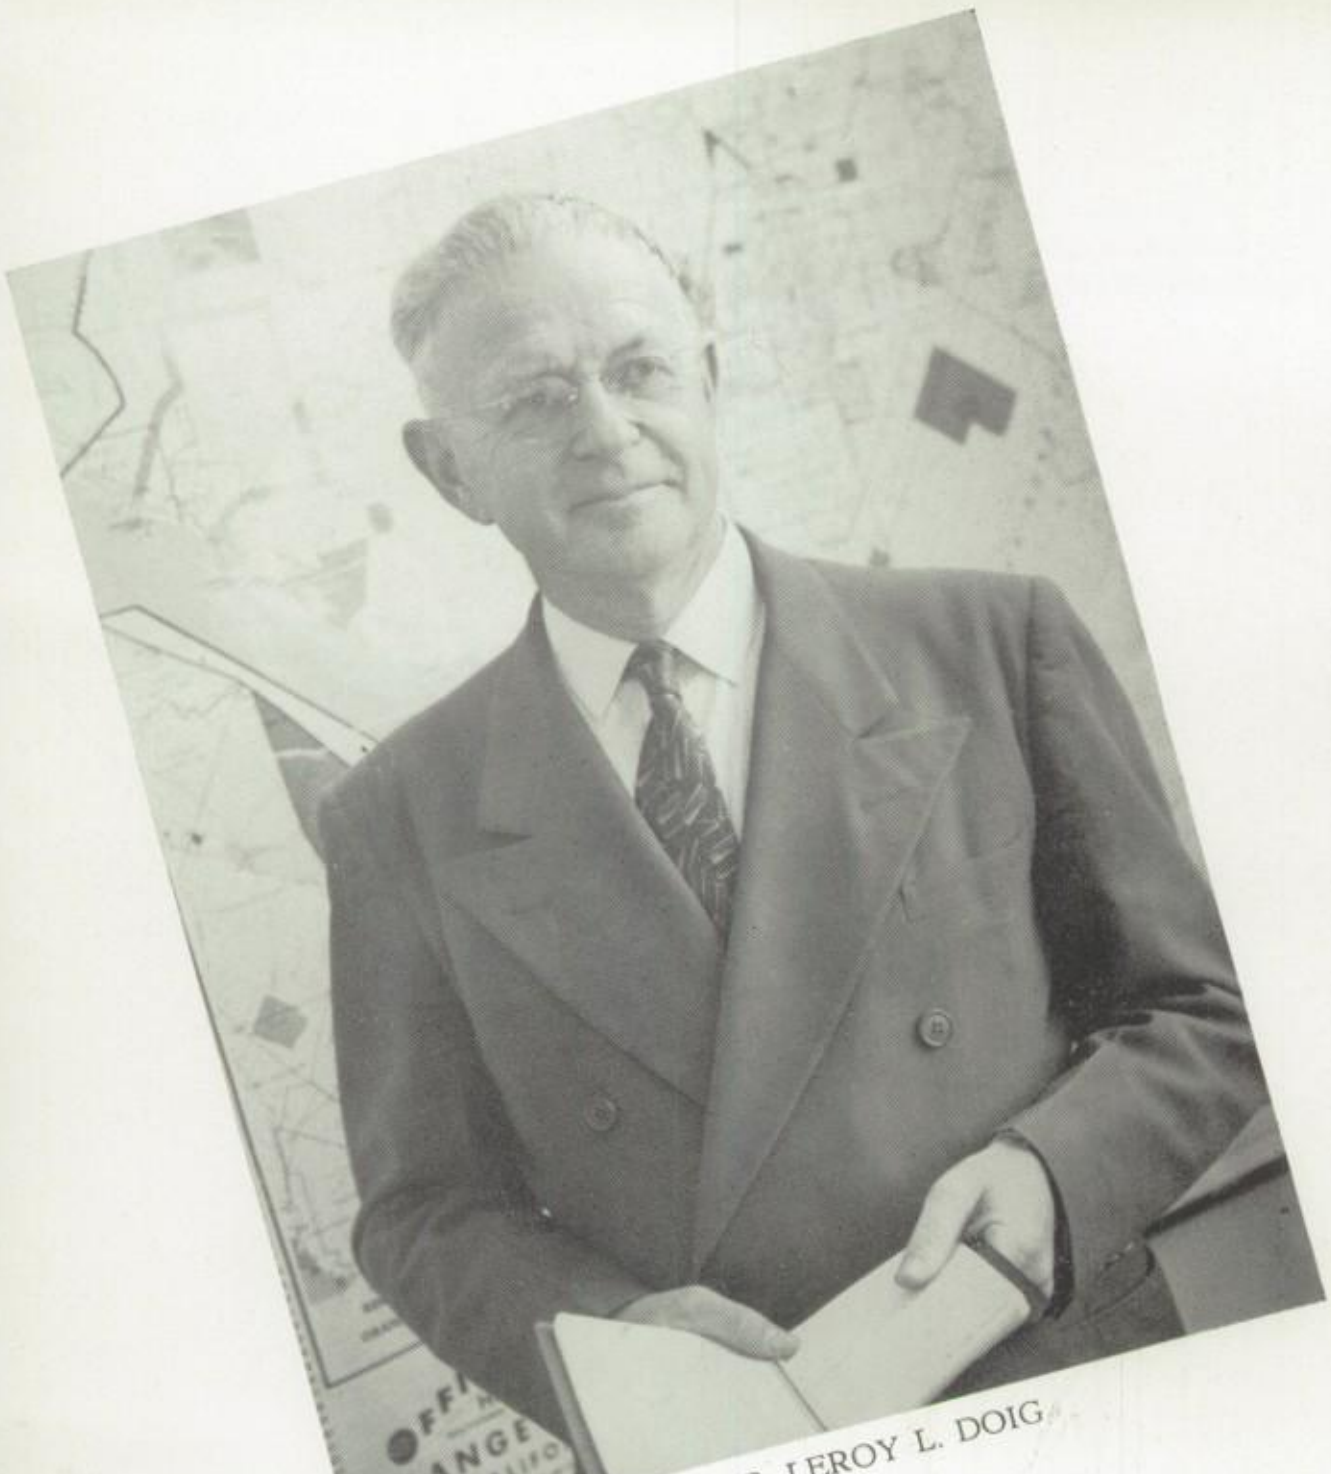
officers too . . .



DR. LEROY L. DOIG

Piracy with its ominous emblem, bleached bones on a bank of black, is an ancient and entirely dishonorable institution. Strangely enough, however, time has been kind to Blackbeard and his ilk. The bravado, the dash, the color and even the swagger of the old time pirate have been immortalized by literature and history.

In much the same way we have borrowed the brightness of the Argonaut Legend. In our modern and thoroughly legitimate activities in Garden Grove High School we emulate the courage, the drive and the endurance of Jason's unconquerable band.

Fight on Argonauts.

The Beacons

The lighthouse and buoy that guide our ship away from the treacherous rocks and shoals . . . lighting our stealthy course during a dangerous voyage . . . Joseph Putnam, Lawrence Woods, president; Mrs. Grace Perkins, clerk; Mrs. Hattie Drake, Willis W. Cadwallader. . . . We give our deepest thanks and appreciation for their service . . . and a fond farewell to Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. Drake who have served their last voyage on our pirate ship.

TRUSTEES

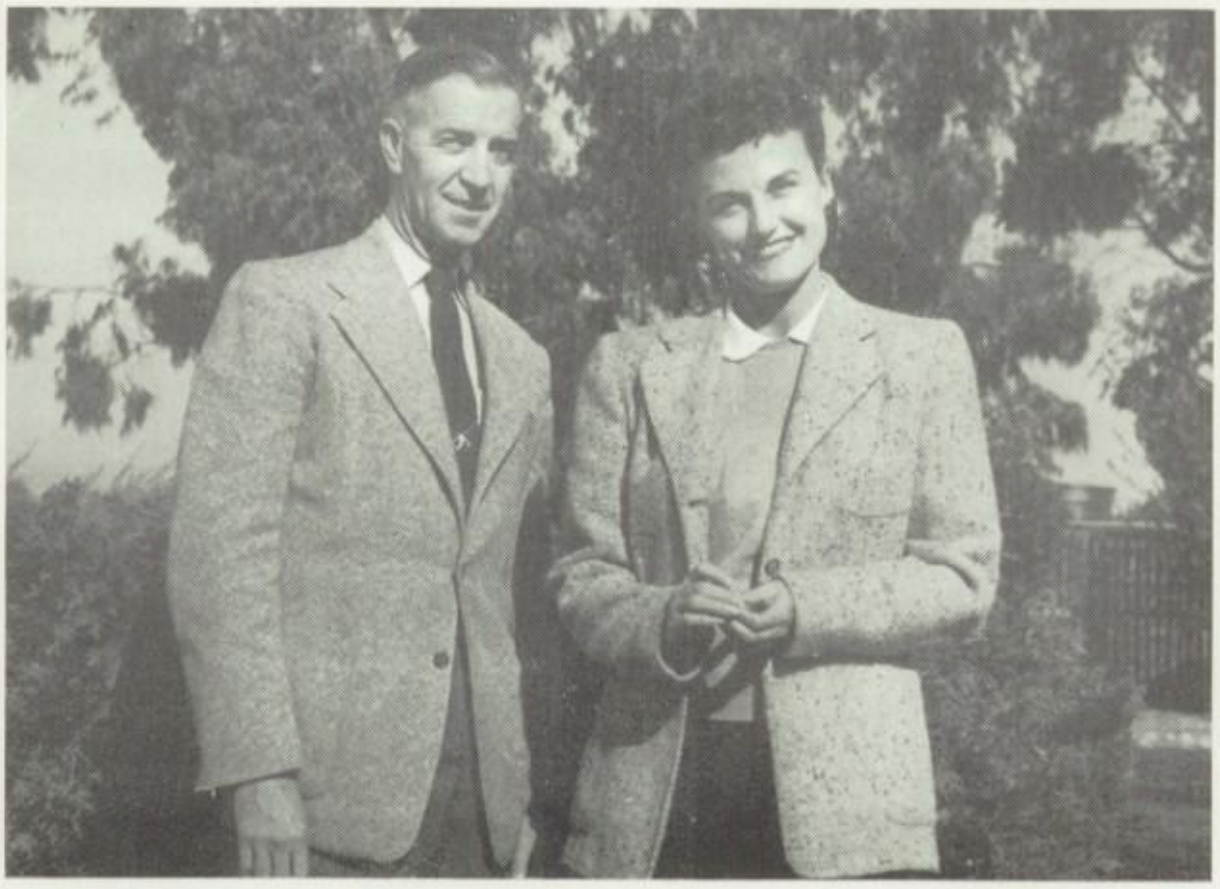
Old Sailors

A busy, exciting year full of new activities . . . sponsored the Monday night dancing classes . . . a successful undertaking . . . a "treasure" of $35 as gift to the school for a loudspeaker system in the bleachers . . . election of new officers . . . Dr. Katz lectures presented under their supervision.

They Maintain the Sails

They maintain the sails, tend to the necessary details and records accompanying each voyage . . . these tasks assigned to Miss Pauline Steres, Harold Reynolds, and Jack Schumaker . . . without their efforts the old ship would soon run aground in the shoals and reefs of confusion for lack of efficient, capable organization.



Donald Jordan, Dean of Boys, English.

Mrs. Eileene LaBarthe, Dean of Girls, English.

Captains

Possessing the knowledge of the ancient mariners . . . and the secrets of Davey Jones' Locker . . . Expertly commanding their crew through calm or storm . . . assigning homework . . . correcting papers . . . giving up the treasure of their minds to all who would seek and find.

Mrs. Maxine Tungstall, Mrs. Ruth O'Mohundro, Miss Jessie Files, Mrs. Blanche Berry, Mrs. Blanche Conklin.

The Galley

The best stocked galley of any ship in these seven seas . . . hard tack "a la king," and iced bilge water on tap . . . from here comes the energy which makes good sailors . . . no scurvy patients in sick bay . . . hats off to Miss Jessie Files and her cooks!

Everything Ship-Shape

They clean the decks, polish the brass . . . tie the knots, rig the riggings . . . trim the hedges, mow the lawns . . . sweep the walks, wash the windows . . . with the cooperation of the crew, everything is ship-shape at the end of another voyage . . . a vessel of which all aboard are proud.

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

First Mates

"Mats" and his first mates rule the ship with a hand of iron . . . But they wield the whip of authority with honesty and justice . . . Enjoyed turkey dinners . . . A trip to the San Clemente Beach Club . . . Ways of relaxing from their strenuous duties . . . But they are back on the job when needed . . . No crew could wish for better luck, sailing under such leadership.

COMMISSION

STANDING—Cliff O'Hern, Jack Dales, Dalton Killion, Ray DeWitt, John Borrego, John Amling, Clyde Smith, Daryl Taylor.
SEATED—Carolyn Kavanaugh, Ann Johnstone, Jean Ward, Donna Vener, Bobbie Wheeler, Iris Ryssman, Mary Henderson, Sandra Bates.

The Law of the Sea

Mutineers beware! There's a commissioner on board . . . These stalwart sons of Neptune quell any uprising by merely writing on a tiny slip of paper . . . But don't fear, sailor. You'll have a jury trial before the Board of Control . . . Fair, alert judges every one.

BOARD OF CONTROL

Navigators

In these capable hands lie the decisions which affect the welfare of all aboard ship . . . What course shall we set? . . . How many provisions should be stored in the hold? . . . What shall be the rulings applying to the crew's conduct on this voyage? . . . more members added, assuring every seaman, from "cabin boy" to "old salt," that he will be represented when the treasure is divided.

Mermaids

All hands on deck for uniform inspection . . . buttons bright? . . . tie straight? . . . patch over one eye? . . .

In this girls' navy, bandanas prohibited and all "feet" required to wear shoes . . . all present and accounted for, in suitable sea-going outfits . . . the year brightened by the Mothers' and Daughters' Fashion Show and Tea . . . Co-Ed Dance, and the Big and Little Sisters Day . . . kept afloat by Mrs. Eileen La Barthe.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

STANDING—Rae Dunn, treasurer; Rozella Borden, judge; Sandra Bates, judge; Darlene Lewis, vice-president; Audrey Cripe, Chairman of dress regulations; Harumi Shigemasa, secretary; Mrs. Eileene LaBarthe, adviser.

SEATED—Beverly Hamilton, co-chairman of dress regulations; June Mulford, judge; Bobbie Wheeler, judge; Luana Powell, president.

They along with the salts and others make up the crew.

JEAN WARD

To Jean Ward goes the honor of being the most worthy girl Argonaut of the 1951 class. Jean was chosen because of her high attitude rating, and her active part in school organizations.

Jean was most active in sports having been a G.A.A. member all four years. In her Senior year she was on the Commission, and was a Golden Fleece and Scholarship member.

Congratulations, Jean.

The honor of being the most worthy boy Argonaut of the 1951 class goes to Bill Phillips. His active participation in various school organizations and activities, and his high attitude rating merit Bill this honor. During his Senior year he was on the Board of Control, and he was a member of the Golden Fleece and of the Hi-Y. Throughout his four years in high school he took part in sports, especially in football, basketball, and baseball.

Congratulations, Bill.

Varsity Football

The most successful season since 1946 was completed by the Argonauts this year. The Varsity gridders started off by dropping the opener to Orange, 19-0. In the next game they bounced back by running rough shod over Puente 33-6, and Tustin 6-0 in the League opener. Laguna then toppled the Argos 19-0. The Argonaut gridmen showed plenty of fight in registering two wins over Brea 34-6 and Valencia 44-6. Garden Grove won a hard fought victory over Bonita, 24-20, before dropping a 14-12 decision to Palm Springs in the C.I.F. playoffs.

This year's squad was paced by such stellar performers as Ray Ramirez, James Matsunaga, Leonard Schneider and John Borrego, who were all placed on the first string All-League team. First stringers Dick Mitchell, Jack Elder, Jim Rogers, Clyde Smith and Bill Spurlock were backed up by men like Kenny Price, Marshall Van der Linde, Bill Phillips and Harry Fitzgerald.

Coaches Beatty and Fagrell and the entire squad should be congratulated on the fine season.

Bee Football

The middleweights, under coach Don Kennedy, had a better than average season. They did not lose sight of the championship until the final game of the season.

The team was sparked by the hard running Ted Kitada and Lupe Yniguez and a deceptive quaterback in Gary Davidson. The line play was handled by two hard charging guards, Bob Johnson and Wesley Groom.

Although not a championship squad the boys should be congratulated, for every game was hard fought.

The following are the scores for League games. Garden Grove 32-Tustin 12; Garden Grove 20-Laguna 0; Garden Grove 20-Capo 0; Garden Grove 6-Brea 7; Garden Grove 0-Valencia 40.

Cee Football

After a lapse of one year Garden Grove again fielded a "C" football team. Mentor Jack Schumaker's midgets came along rather slowly, losing to Orange 20 and 7 to 0. They were then defeated by Tustin 34-6, and Laguna 32-12. In the last game of the season they lost to Laguna 7-6. Although not coming through with a victory, the team showed improved blocking and tackling with every game.

Bee

Coach Norman Fagrell's Bee team was in second place when the season ended. There was a battle right up to the last League game; the Argonauts lost that one to Brea. However, they won eight of their ten League games. This was an outstanding season record. Gary Davidson led the team in scoring.

Cee and Dee

Under Coach Jack Schumaker the Cee team finished the season in a second-place tie, losing only to Laguna and Valencia. The team was led by Howard Blackman and Wally Davis. Wally Davis was the team's leading scorer.

The Dee team managed to win only one League game. However, they showed a great deal of fight in every game and were progressing as the season went along. Leading scorer was Gary Fletchall.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Varsity Basketball

Two successive League Championships is the record chalked up by Coach Don Kennedy. Starting fast the Argonauts swept the first round. However, Tustin spelled their downfall in the second round. The defeat by Tustin necessitated a play-off which Garden Grove won by a decided margin. Due to injuries, the crippled Argonauts lost a C. I. F. play-off game to Bonita.

Captain John Borrego with Ray Ramirez led the Argos' offense. Leonard Schneider and Jack Kraushaar were outstanding on defense. John Borrego, Ray Ramirez, and Jack Kraushaar were placed on the All League Squad.

Bee and Cee Track

Lacking experience the Bee team scored only six points in the All-League meet. Frank Pina was an outstanding distance runner and scored the only first place in the All-League meet. The team was hampered by injuries and did not show its true capabilities all season.

The Cees showed outstanding class as they copped the League championship. Norman Fagrell's mighty midgets were paced by sprinters Eric Conley and Lupe Yniguez. The team was well balanced and overpowered all opposition.

Varsity Track

Losing many members of last year's championship squad, the Argonaut speedsters were only able to place third in the All-League meet. The team lacked depth but had some outstanding performers. In the mile Adolph Maya broke the League record, running a terrific 4:39.8. Dick Mitchell was a consistent discus man and Frank Hansen was outstanding in the shot put.

The results of the All-League meet are as follows: Laguna 55½, Tustin 49½, Garden Grove 17, Brea Olinda 7, Valencia 6, Capistrano 5.

Tennis Team

League Champions of 1950, Garden Grove's 1951 tennis team is the climax of four years of intense practice and interest on the part of the players, almost all have been members of the Varsity squad for three years. "Pop" Eidelson has coached and advised the boys since they were freshmen, and has received gratifying results.

This year's practice matches were held with much larger schools, such as Colton, Anaheim, Newport, Santa Ana, and Huntington Beach, all of which are tennis powers. Garden Grove was victorious in many of the practice matches, and did well in all of them.

As the annual goes to press, the 1951 tennis team, veterans of four years, is expected to sweep through League play victoriously.

Varsity Baseball

A good season is in prospect for the Argonaut "horsehiders." Veteran batteries will anchor the team with Ray Ramirez, John Borrego, and Bill Phillips returning.

As the Argonaut goes to press, the League play has not started. There has been one practice game with Huntington Beach which was won by the Oilers. Coach Beatty is looking forward to a successful season because of improved hitting and veteran pitching.

Basketball Review

First in the chest of hidden treasures we find the golden sport of basketball. For the seniors, Captain Rae Pinon led her bold pirates to an overwhelming victory over Valencia. For the juniors, mention should be given to their captain, Shirley Starkey. A sanguinary battle was given by the sophomores and freshmen.

It was held at the port of Fullerton and the battle results were as follows:

Seniors	20	Valencia	16
Juniors	29	Anaheim	48
Juniors	30	Tustin	36
Sophomores	22	Anaheim	12
Sophomores	19	Fullerton	18
Freshmen	15	Tustin	21
Freshmen	53	Valencia	22
